

artículos de opinión y noticias

Ables, Kelsey. (2024). New York City designates social media a public health hazard. The Washington Post.

<https://www.washingtonpost.com/technology/2024/01/25/nyc-social-media-health-hazard-toxin/>

Haidt, Jonathan. (2024). End the Phone-based Childhood Now. The Atlantic.

https://www.theatlantic.com/technology/archive/2024/03/teen-childhood-smart-phone-use-mental-health-effects/677722/?utm_source=copy-link&utm_medium=social&utm_campaign=share

Perez, Sarah. (2022). Kids and teens now spend more time watching TikTok than YouTube, new data shows. Tech Crunch.

<https://techcrunch.com/2022/07/13/kids-and-teens-watch-more-tiktok-than-youtube-tiktok-91-minutes-in-2021-youtube-56/>

Twenge, Jean. (2022). How Much Is Social Media to Blame for Teens' Declining Mental Health? Institute for Family Studies.

<https://ifstudies.org/blog/how-much-is-social-media-to-blame-for-teens-declining-mental-health>

Vogels, Emily. (2022). Teens, Social Media and Technology 2022. Pew Research Center.

<https://www.pewresearch.org/internet/2022/08/10/teens-social-media-and-technology-2022/>

Walker, Peter. (2024). "Ministers confirm plan to ban use of mobile phones in schools in England". The Guardian.

<https://www.theguardian.com/education/2024/feb/19/ministers-confirm-plan-to-ban-use-of-mobile-phones-in-schools-in-england>